A striking and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. three arm ormolu sconces. Each sconce is centered by an impressive berried foliate finial below large richly chased scrolled acanthus leaves. The three elegantly scrolled arms branch out from the fleur de lys shaped backplate and display a lovely fluted design. At the top of each arm are reeded candle cups adorned with fine acanthus leaves. The pierced body displays additional stunning and charming foliate movements. Above is the most impressive and richly chased large foliate top crown with lovely berried laurel garlands.
