A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Vert de Patricia marble and ormolu urns. Each urn is raised by a square marble base with a fine bottom ormolu band. The socle pedestals display finely chased foliate wrap around ormolu bands and beautiful acanthus leaves which encase the body. Above are most elegant and finely detailed ormolu swaging floral garlands with tied ribbons that extend along the front and back. Leading up each side are superb and uniquely shaped foliate handles and the neck display beautiful berried laurel wrap around ormolu bands. All original gilt throughout.
