An elegant and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. white Carrara marble and ormolu lidded urns. Each urn is raised by a square base with a fine bottom ormolu fillet below the socle shaped pedestal support decorated with a beautiful wrap around berried laurel band and foliate designs. The beautiful curvaceous body is encased with lovely pierced acanthus leaves and rosette designs with elegantly scrolled acanthus leaf arms leading up each side to the pierced rim decorated with a fine twister rope design and delicate swaging chains. Above is the removable lid with a fine richly chased foliate final and luxuriant leaves. All original gilt throughout.
