A stunning pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. ormolu ewers. Each ewer is raised by an elegant scalloped base with beautiful scrolled foliate designs with impressive panthers at each side, and a socle shaped pedestal support. The body is decorated with exceptional finely detailed foliate designs set on a striking hammered background and centered by an elegant smooth cabochon reserve. The elegantly curved neck also displays lovely foliate designs with delicate wrap around laurel bands and diamond shaped reserves with a beautiful scrolled handle leading up the side with a superb wonderfully executed dragon above with its tail wrapped around the handle. The spout displays a remarkable curved design also displaying lovely foliate designs, a smooth cabochon reserve, and handsome mask of a satyr. All original gilt throughout.
