A high quality pair of French 19th century Renaissance st. patinated Bronze, Ormolu, black Belgian and Rosso Antico marble ewers. The pair of urns are raised by square Belgian marble bases with concave corners all over an Ormolu platform. Above is the circular patinated Bronze socle with a gilt reeded band and Bronze fluted stem. The urn has a fanciful central decorative female mask of Diana The Huntress with her half crescent moon in on her hair over a shield and a beaded band. The upper portion is decorated by a band of richly chased palmettes below patinated Bronze acanthus leaves. On the side of the ewers are elegant 'S' scrolled arms with an open winged dragon biting the rim at the top.
