An exceptional and most elegant pair of French early 19th Century Neo-Classical st. ormolu and silvered bronze urns. Each urn is raised by four circular ormolu bun feet below the square silvered bronze base. The bases are adorned with elegant ormolu swaging floral garlands. The urns are raised by circular socles with ormolu beaded bands. The baluster shaped urns are elegantly embellished by central foliate tied wreaths. Both sides of the urns are flanked by 'S' scrolled arms with bottom palmette designs and a foliate top sprays.
