A beautiful and most elegant pair of French early 19th century Régence st. giltwood armchairs. Each armchair is raised by lightly curved legs with fine scrolled feet adorned with acanthus leaves and lovely carved foliate cabochons at each corner. The legs are connected by X shaped stretchers with fine berried laurel designs and central floral rosettes. The friezes display beautiful central carved foliate designs while each uniquely scrolled arm displays charming and richly carved flowers and a fine acanthus leaf. The tall upholstered back supports display elegant scalloped shaped tops. All original gilt throughout.
