An outstanding and most elegant pair of French late 18th / early 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and marble wall mounted consoles. Each console is raised by fine scrolled feet with detailed acanthus leaves. Both elegant elongated S scrolled leg displays a beautiful carved pattern and are attached by a striking pierced foliate stretcher. Above each leg are fine smooth cabochons centering the wonderfully pierced scallop shaped frieze with rich scrolled and foliate movements. Above is the original and uniquely shaped beautiful marble top with rounded corners and a mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
