An elegant pair of French Louis XVI st. 19th century patinated off white and gray two drawer commodes. Each chest is raised by circular tapered fluted legs with a reeded design. The bottom frieze has a wonderful intertwined carved design below the two drawers. The raised panel designed drawers have a central floral spray with patinated iron pulls and are flanked by fluted columns. Below the faux marble painted top is a fine dentil pattern.

Wonderful proportions and ideal for as night tables.
