An impressive and large scaled pair of French mid 19th century Louis XV st. silvered bronze five-arm candelabras. Each candelabra is raised by a circular base with richly chased scrolls, acanthus leaves and smooth cabochons. The central futs display additional 'S' scrolled movements and acanthus leaves all above the fine silvered bronze socle supports. Above are exquisite and intricately detailed branches decorated with beautiful floral accents ending in charming floral and foliate bobechees.
