An impressive and monumentally scaled pair of French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu sconces. Each five arm sconce is centered by magnificent intricately detailed oak leaves with charming acorns and tied with a ribbon with tassels below lovely scrolled acanthus leaves and fine palmettes. The beautiful tapered body displays exceptional richly chased swaging floral garlands and beautiful finely detailed maidens from where the lower three arms branch out. The elegantly curved arms display wonderful scrolled Rinceaux movements with a spiral fluted design, large acanthus leaves, and lovely reeded bobeches. Above is a wonderfully executed draped fabric like reserve with an exquisite array of blooming flowers in a superb satin and burnished finish all below a lovely tied bow and fine rosette reserve. All original gilt throughout.
