A sensational and most elegant pair of French mid 19th century Neo-Classical st. four arm electrified candelabras in ormolu and silvered bronze. The pair are raised by circular ormolu bases with a mottled edge and a Coeur de Rai design. Above is the silvered bronze socle below the circular stem decorated by a laurel band and palmettes. The square silvered fut is embellished by ormolu mounts of acanthus leaves and other foliate branches. The four electrified 'C' scrolled arms have richly chased swans at the top while the reeded arm leads to a circular candle cup with additional designs of palmettes. The top is decorated by a head of a Cariatide.
