A stunning and most elegant pair of French mid 19th century Renaissance st. ewers in ormolu and silvered bronze. The pair are raised by a scalloped oval shaped ormolu support with richly chased acanthus leaves. The topie shaped fut is below the baluster shaped silvered bronze ewer finely decorated by an ormolu crest with raised foliate scrolls and foliate swaging garlands. Each has a 'S' scrolled handle leading to the spout which is decorated the same as the crests. All original gilt. Wonderful detail and proportions throughout.
