A most decorative and highly detailed pair of French mid 19th century Renaissance st. patinated bronze and Rouge Griotte marble ewers. The pair are raised by octagon shaped Rouge Griotte marble bases with a mottled top border. Above is the circular base of the ewer with a scrolled etched floral design. The base is decorated by a charming snail beside Poseidon holding two dolphins. Above is an oval shaped vessel decorated by similar etched designs and lion heads with rings in their mouths. At the back of the vessel is a bearded masculine face below Neptune holding his trident and a floral cornucopia. Wonderfully rich and original patina throughout.
