A spectacular pair of French mid 19th Louis XVI st. ormolu four light candelabras. Each candelabra is raised by a concave side base with rosette centered amidst three richly carved paw feet. Above is an impressive tapered and fluted stem, surrounded by tapered columns joined by swaging garlands. All below the three "S" scrolled arms with acanthus leaves design and highly chased candle cups and bobeches. Topped by an urn of prosperity amidst acorn finials and a central finely chased candelcup. All original gilt.
