An exceptional and most elegant pair of French turn of the century Louis XVI st. giltwood and crystal sconces attributed to Maison Bagues. Each sconce is centered by a fine circular mottled giltwood backplate from where the striking wonderfully executed branches with charming most decorative crystal leaves set on silvered leaf backgrounds branch up and downwards. The two lovely scrolled arms branch outwards leading to fine floral bobeches and unique glass candle cups. All original gilt throughout.

Maison Bagues Founded in Auvergne, France, in 1840 by Nicolas Baguès, the company originally specialized in the creation of liturgical bronzes. Thanks to Baguès' expansion into bronze lighting and the popularization of electricity, the business quickly found success. At the turn of the century, their chandeliers captured international interest, and soon Baguès began exporting to London, New York, Rome, Brussels, and Cairo. The company is best known for introducing to the world their now signature collections of finely crafted iron, gilt and crystal chandeliers and wall sconces Parrots & Foliage.
