An elegant pair of French turn of the century Louis XVI st. Silvered Bronze and glass vases. The pair of bud vases are raised on circular Silvered Bronze scalloped shaped bases. The bases have a wonderful burnished and satin finish with 'C' scrolls and three foliate sprays while the center mimics a natural terrain. The fut which supports the central hand blown glass vase is designed with leaves wrapping around the glass. The tapering hand blown vases have wonderful reticulated ruffle like top edge.
