A striking and most unique pair of French turn of the century Neo-Classical st. Ormolu and Var Orange marble Guéridon side tables. This sensational pair are raised on triangular pierced base below three elegantly curved legs ending with lion's paw feet with large finely chased acanthus leaves above. The recessed center of the curved legs are decorated by a hammered design and are joined by a round etched band with attractive mounted rosettes. At the top of each leg are handsome lion heads with rings in their mouths. The apron is elegantly decorated by tulip like designs flanked by burnished bands. The apron surrounds the original and colorful fitted Var Orange marble. All original gilding throughout.
