A most handsome and impressive pair of Italian 18th century Baroque st. Walnut buffets, from Northern Italy. Each two door, two drawer buffet is raised by a unique and most decorative mottled rectangular base below a beautiful carved foliate band. At the center are two doors which open to reveal one shelf and the original hardware, with each door displaying impressive carved family crests set within a recessed panel with carved rosettes. The doors are flanked by finely carved bearded men with large acanthus leaves and elegant scrolled movement. At the sides are carved recessed panels with fine foliate rosettes. At the frieze are the drawers with two turned pulls and mirrored circular patterns, separated by block reserves. The rectangular top showcases the warm Walnut grain and displays an elegant carved border.
