A handsome and unique pair of Italian 18th century Neo-Classical st. Walnut and Giltwood benches from Tuscany. Each three seat bench is raised by four square cabriole legs with the front legs displaying a lovely taper. The front legs lead into the arm rest where it is met by a finely carved Giltwood lion's head that serves as the hand rest. The armrest extends to the pierced backrest which is decorated with three crescent moon shaped backs and tastefully carved Giltwood urns of prosperity on each stretcher. The amber colored upholstery is finished and secured with French nails.
