A handsome pair of Italian 18th Century Transitional giltwood benches. The square benches are raised by topie shaped supports with a fluted straight column all below elegant cabriole legs. The top of the legs have a carved crest below a shell like design. Each scalloped shaped side has a central reserve of a medallion flanked by acanthus leaves. All original gilt and patina throughout.

This pair is from a larger set of matching bench. Item #9458A sold separately.
