A spectacular pair of Italian 19th century giltwood mirrors. The rectangular moulded framed mirrors with curved top and pierced central reserve adorned by two charming cherubs displaying an oval mirror with flowers. Flanked by large scrolled acanthus leaves below a central scrolled crest. At each upper corner, an additional cherub, holding a small mirror looking at their own reflection. The bottom corners are carved with Greek key design supports with acanthus leaves and flowers on the sides. Wonderful carving throughout. All original mirror plates and gilt.
