A spectacular true pair of Italian 19th century Louis XIV st. marble balustrades. Each is raised on a straight mottled Gris St. Anne marble base. Black Belgian marble columns support each side with a white Carrera marble façade with intricately carved and inlaid marble rosettes of a unique variety of exotic marbles such as Rouge Griotte, Vert de Patricia and Sienna marble.

At the center are five baluster shaped supports of Incarnat Turquin, Blue Turquin and black Belgian marble. All below the mottled plinth Gris St. Anne marble top.
