A beautiful and most unique pair of Italian 19th century Louis XIV st. patinated bronze, ormolu, crystal and glass eight arm chandeliers. Each chandelier is centered by a charming hand blown glass ball amidst beautiful and most decorative arrays of water drop shaped crystal pendants. The elegantly scrolled arms display glass candle cups and are adorned with lovely pressed metal rosettes, large acanthus leaves and swaging beaded garlands. The central futs are encased in striking reeded crystals leading up to the impressive two tiered top crowns with scrolled sprays decorated with beautiful water drop shaped crystal pendants and swaging garlands. All original patina throughout.
