A stunning and extremely elegant pair of Italian 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and white Carrara marble consoles. Each wall mounted console is raised by three beautiful scrolled legs adorned with beautiful finely carved acanthus leaves, charming flowers and scrolled feet. Each leg is connected by a striking palmette stretcher. The scalloped shaped aprons are centered by impressive and most decorative smooth cabochon reserves flanked by fine scrolled gadroons and lovely flowing acanthus leaves. Above are the original white Carrara marble tops with most decorative scalloped shapes and finely mottled borders. All original gilt throughout.
