A handsome pair of Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. patinated off white and giltwood consoles. The pair of freestanding consoles are raised by faux painted marble blocks and concave supports. The front circular tapered columns are elegantly decorated by bottom palmettes with gilt scrolled foliate flowers all below the gilt capital. Above is the stretcher which joins the front columns to the back panel of the console and is decorated by a gilt Coeur de Rai border. The back panel has the fitted original mirror plate framed within the same Coeur de Rai band and the stretcher. Flanking the mirror plate are two rectangular fluted gilt columns with a bottom plinth and top capital. The apron also has two outer gilt rosettes below the mottled gilt molding and the side decorated in the same manner. Above lay their original Verde Rana Ondato marble tops.
