A handsome pair of Italian late 17th century Louis XIV period Walnut, Vert de Patricia, Brocatelle d'Espagne, and Grand Antico marble side tables. Each rectangular table is raised by elegant topie shaped feet below block reserves connected by a most decorative pierced scalloped shaped stretcher with a fine mottled border. The turned legs each display a lovely baluster shaped design below the straight frieze also decorated with a fine mottled border.

Above are the original fitted marble tops with central rectangular shaped Brocatelle d'Espagne marble reserves framed within fine Grand Antico fillets and beautiful quarter veneered Vert de Patricia marble and Walnut borders.
