A sensational and very rare pair of palatially scaled Italian mid 19th century Baroque st. double framed giltwood mirrors. Each mirror retains all of its original mirror plates throughout framed within a beautiful mottled foliate band and fine beaded twisted ribbon at the border. The bases display elegant and most decorative arched designs centered by impressive foliate reserves and floral wreaths flanked by stunning swaging floral garlands leading to large beautiful scrolled acanthus leaves at the corners. The majestic spectacular top crowns are centered by charming seashells flanked by spectacular luxuriantly scrolled foliate movements leading to stunning intricately detailed floral garlands swaging at the fronts of the mirrors and draping down each side. All original gilt throughout.
