A stunning Russian 19th Century Neo-Classical st. crystal and hand blown cobalt blue glass twelve light chandelier. The chandelier is centered by a solid crystal ball below a circular hand blown cobalt blue glass base decorated with prism shaped cut crystal pendants. The ormolu central tier displays additional elegant prism shaped cut crystal pendants and a most decorative pierced design with circular movements and richly chased acorn finials. The twelve elegantly scrolled arms are adorned with detailed acanthus leaves and foliate candle cups. Above four square link chains is the exceptional top crown with a beautiful hand blown cobalt blue glass plateau centered by a pieced ormolu design with an acorn finial and adorned with cut crystal pendants. All original gilt throughout.
