A most elegant and complete set of eight French 19th century Louis XV st. patinated wood dining chairs. Each country French dining chair is raised by fine cabriole legs with a lovely mottled design, carved acanthus leaves and charming rosettes. The lovely arbalest shaped frieze are centered by richly carved floral reserves. Each of the elegantly scrolled arms displays similar and most decorative carved mottled designs and upholstered armrests. The upholstered back supports display finely carved foliate accents and lovely floral reserves above. Also finished at the back.
