An exceptional and extremely decorative set of four Italian 18th century engraved prints of intricately detailed scenes. One is of the university of Medicine, another is of a piece by Juan Nepomuceno de Sáenz, that was done on reverse painted glass which is currently displayed at the Museo Nacional de Historia, Mexico City. They each display a title at the top, "Facultas Consultissima", "Facultas Sacra", "Facultas Inclyta" and "Facultas Saluberrima". Each is framed within elegant 19th century mottled gilt and patinated frames.
