A wonderful and unique set of six Italian late 18th / early 19th century patinated off white and giltwood Tuscan stools. Each stool is raised by cabriole fluted legs with a carved leaf at the end and a patinated off white foot. The legs are joined by four 'S' scrolled gilt leaves with a central finial. The apron continues on all sides and has a charming central carved flower flanked by foliate scrolls. Upholstered in a light gold silk with a gold trim.
