A stunning and extremely high quality true pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. patinated bronze and ormolu lamps. Each five arm candelabra lamp is raised by a sensational pierced Rocaille ground like designed base with a beautiful scrolled central seashell reserve. At the centers are superb finely detailed patinated bronze figures of a beautiful maiden draped in a wonderfully executed flowing garment and a handsome man with grapes and grape leaves in his hair. An impressive and most decorative scrolled reeded ormolu tree trunks lead up the backs to the exceptional elegantly scrolled arms each adorning with richly chased oak leaves in warm satin and burnished finishes. Each arm displays lovely floral bobeches and candle cups.
