An impressive and very high quality true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period onyx and ormolu andirons. Each andiron is raised by elegant slender foliate topie shaped feet below superb richly chased berried laurel bands which extend along the concave front. At the center is a striking and most decorative onyx quiver with a fine ormolu base and encased by beautiful scrolled elements at each side with a superb intricately detailed blooming flower swaging garland. Above is a charming tied ribbon, a lovely foliate wrap around band, and a reeded top with remarkable richly chased fletchings.

Complimentary single andiron item #11570, available and shown in the last photo displayed with mantel item #4266, each sold separately.
