A stunning and extremely decorative true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and silvered bronze lamps. Each lamp is raised by elegant fluted topie shaped feet flanking richly chased acanthus leaf mounts below a striking wrap around tied berried laurel band and beautiful curved fluted and reeded socle shaped pedestal support. At the center is a most charming young boy and a beautiful young girl with exquisite attention to detail holding seashells while seemingly holding up the bobeche while each riding an impressive dolphin with richly chased scales. The bobeches each display a remarkable foliate seashell design below the superb acanthus leaf designed candle cup in a rich satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
