A stunning and extremely decorative true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, patinated bronze, Rouge Griotte, and black Belgian marble lamps. Each lamp is raised by a handsome Rouge Griotte marble base with cut corners and a fine mottled black Belgian marble band. At the centers are striking and most impressive fluted pedestal supports with superb scrolled elements and richly chased swaging blooming floral garlands. The lamp to the left depicts a beautiful finely detailed maiden draped in a wonderfully executed flowing dress with a charming winged cherub at her feet and a ball with stars and clouds. The lamp to the right depicts a handsome man with an impressive headpiece draped in a fine flowing fabric with a cherub and a striking richly chased dragon at his feet.
