An extremely high quality true pair of French early 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu, Bleu Turquin marble, and Porphyry mounted candelabras. Each candelabra is raised by a square Bleu Turquin marble base with concave corners and an elegant and most decorative mottled border. Above the beautifully detailed wrap around foliate ormolu band is a solid circular Porphyry column. The beautiful ormolu maidens are dressed in a detailed flowing draped attire and each holds a striking cornucopia with fine floral, fruit designs, and flower buds. From the inside of the cornucopia are three scrolled branches that end with blossoming flowers turned into candle cups. At the lower level of the branches are additional flower buds and foliage. All original gilt throughout.
