A stunning and extremely high quality true pair of Italian 19th century Neo-Classical st. white Carrara marble statues. The statues are raised on their original Vert de Patricia marble pedestals. Each pedestal displays an octagonal base and a circular lightly tapered central support with richly sculpted and finely detailed lyre and foliate designs. Each statue above depicts a charming and intricately sculpted man and woman musician. The woman is dressed in finely detailed period attire draped in elegant pearls. She holds a tambourine while standing in front of a column with wonderfully sculpted bricks and flowers with a most charming lizard at the center. At her feet, CIOCIARA is inscribed. The man also displays intricate attention to detail and wears finely detailed period attire while holding a guitar and wearing a lovely hat with a feather in it. At his feet, LA SERENATA is inscribed. Lovely and very charming subject matter.
