A very attractive and elegant French 19th century Transitional st. serving table. This quarter veneered tulipwood server is raised on cabiole legs with wrap around ormolu sabots and a finely chased ormolu mount at the top of each leg. At the scalloped frieze is a central scrolled ormolu mounts on the front and back, and ormolu handles at each side. Above is an open tier and top shelf with elaborate and large acanthus leaf scrolled ormolu mounts at each corner. All original gilt and patina throughout.
