A beautiful and most decorative English 19th century burl Walnut and exotic wood tilt top table. The oval table is raised by elegant scrolled legs with their original porcelain casters and decorated with beautiful inlaid laurel bands, foliate designs, and wonderful scrolled movements. At the center are four columns supports with finely inlaid arrows with mottled top and bottom caps and connected by a most decorative central tier with concave sides and stunning inlaid foliate details. The beautiful oval top tilts upon its original hardware and displays masterfully inlaid acanthus leaves and foliate designs with exceptional pyrograved accents set on a stunning and most decorative quarter veneered burl Walnut background.
