A handsome Italian 17th century Baroque period Walnut and burl Walnut cabinet. The smaller scale one door twelve drawer table top cabinet is raised by impressive paw feet below a large gadroon designed wrap around band. At the center is a single drawer with an elegant arch and column design surrounded by ten small drawers each decorated with mottled recessed designs and a turned pull set on a beautiful burl Walnut background. At each side are striking columns with richly carved personages amidst charming acanthus leaves while the sides showcase the stunning burl Walnut wood grain. Above are two concealed drawers also decorated with recessed panels with mottled borders and fine fluted block reserves and which open by activating a concealed button. The top also showcases the beautiful wood grain with a most decorative gadroon designed border. All original rich patina throughout.
