A magnificent and most impressive Italian 17th century Baroque period Walnut, Tulipwood and bronze commode from the Lombardi region. The three drawer chest is raised by beautiful scrolled foliate supports below a handsome mottled band. Each drawer displays a decorative cut angled design with handsome scrolled bronze pulls and family crest shaped keyhole escutcheon set on a recessed Walnut background and framed within an elegant Tulipwood fillet and mottled border. Above is the solid walnut top showcasing the beautiful original warm patina and wood grain.
