A stunning and large scale Italian 18th century Baroque period Giltwood wall decor panel. At the center of this very decorative panel is a protruding central medallion with carved foliate designs and acanthus leaf sprays all within a mottled border. The central medallion is surrounded by additional richly carved symmetrical scrolled designs of various foliate branches, acanthus leaf sprays, and wandering vines. At each side are protruding vertical columns with plinths and capitals that are decorated by intricately carved laurel vines. The top and bottom are finished with mottled edge moldings. All original gilt throughout.
