An impressive and very high quality Italian 18th century Baroque period Walnut and stained Pine commode. The four drawer chest is raised by beautiful richly carved scrolled foliate feet with lovely central seashells below the straight mottled frieze. Each drawer is decorated with an exceptional and most decorative array of finely carved detailed foliate block reserves flanked by the striking stained pine reserves with mottled designs and richly chased scrolled bronze pulls which open to reveal all their handsome original hardware. The sides and top showcase the beautiful warm wood grain. All original warm patina throughout.
