A handsome Italian 18th century Country st. Walnut center/dining table. The four drawer table is raised square tapered legs with carved recessed designs and mottled feet each attached by a lovely scalloped stretcher. The frieze displays two drawers at the front and two drawers at the back each decorated with fine turned pulls and mottled recessed designs while each end displays two large pegs attaching the top to the base. Above is the solid Walnut top showcasing the beautiful wood grain with a remarkable wrap around mottled border. All original patina throughout.
