A most elegant Italian 18th century Louis XV period Walnut and bronze commode. The two drawer chest is raised by beautifully tapered cabriole legs with impressive and most decorative claw and ball feet. At the center are two sans traverse (without crossbar) drawers showcasing the cabinet maker's high skill set with the bottom drawer displaying a most decorative arbalest shape and each displaying richly chased scrolled foliate pulls and exceptional pierced keyhole escutcheons. The sides display beautiful scalloped shapes while the top repeats the remarkable shape of the chest and displays a fine mottled border, both showcasing the warm wood grain.
