A handsome Italian 18th century Louis XV st. walnut, brass and pewter inlaid two drawer chest. The striking chest is raised by cabriole legs below the brass inlaid arbalest shaped frieze. The two drawers at the center are "sans traverse" (without crossbar) and display impressive and extremely decorative inlaid brass and pewter foliate designs centering an etched crest. The inlaid designs extend over both drawers and are repeated to each side. Above is additional wonderfully inlaid brass and pewter inlays. All original hardware throughout.
