A handsome Italian 18th century solid walnut gateleg table from Tuscany. The table is raised by two elegant carved scalloped shaped trestle supports with lovely scrolled foliate movements with one side displaying a drawer. Each support is connected by a straight rectangular stretcher secured by the original most decorative pegs at each side. The two sides fold up and are secured in place by a scalloped shaped flap underneath showcasing the beautiful warm walnut wood grain. All original hardware and rich patina throughout.
