A handsome Italian 18th century Transitional period Mahogany, Tulipwood, Cherrywood and Ormolu commode. The three drawer commode is raised by elegant slender tapered cabriole legs below the straight apron and drawers. Each drawer has an central oval inlay surrounding the keyhole. The central Cherrywood inlaid rectangular panel is bordered by a Tulipwood and Mahogany outer border. The drawers are also elegantly decorated by their original oval Ormolu handles with a central rosette design. The two sides of the commode are inlaid with a quarter veneered border by the Mahogany band. The top is decorated in the same elegant manner.
