A stunning and extremely decorative Italian 18th century Louis XV Period Walnut and burl Walnut console from Venice. The console is raised by most elegant cabriole legs with beautiful scrolled foliate feet and richly carved interlocking branches and blooming flowers at the corners set on a fine hammered background. The pierced frieze displays an exceptional scalloped shape with additional wonderfully executed charming floral carvings also on a most decorative hammered background centering a stunning reeded seashell reserve amidst lovely scrolled movements. The top displays exceptional veneered Walnut designs showcasing the stunning wood grain framed within a lovely veneered Walnut band and fine mottled border. All original rich patina throughout.
